Channah - Natty Knocks Reviews

Credit NATTY KNOCKS - Channah Zeitung as Jolie

Channah Zeitung also shines as Jolie, the younger sister who constantly finds herself in over her head. - Nathaniel Muir - AIPT - 7/29/23

Still it's the dynamics between the central cast – Charlotte Fountain-Jardim, Thomas Robie, and Channah Zeitung – that gives this horror movie a surprising amount of heart. -Andrew Welsh 7/22/23

Channah (Jolie) and Charlotte Fountain-Jardim (Britt)

The horror icons Danielle Harris, Robert Englund, and Bill Moseley (along with the director Dwight H. Little) are what made me watch this film, but it's the young cast that ends up stealing the show.

Channah Zeitung (Jolie) is the young sister, who in many lesser horror movies would be portrayed as innocent and annoying. Not so much in this film. She's young and obviously dealing with some trauma from the situation they stumble upon but it's all believable and you feel true sympathy for her character. - Brandon - Middle Aged Fat Kids - 7/29/23

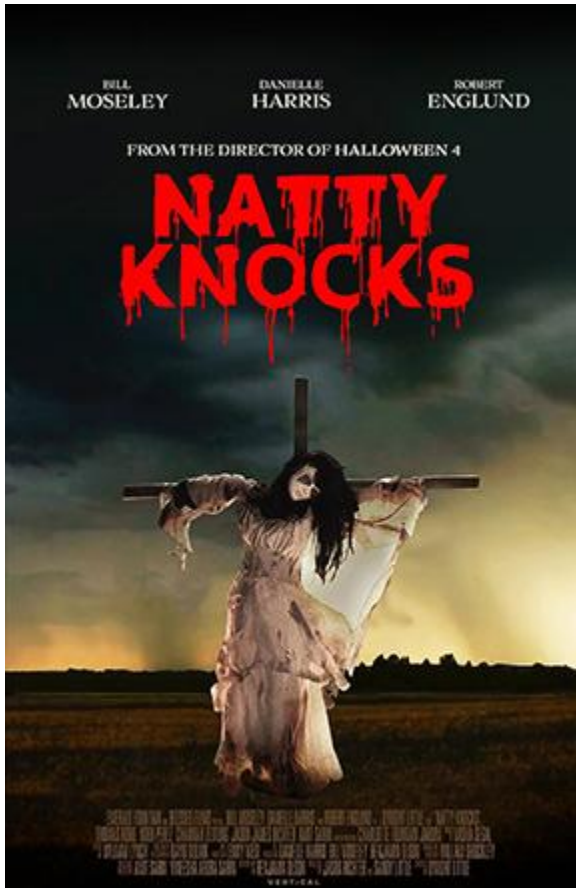

The whole cast turns in great performances from the genre stalwarts to the fresh faced. Each character gets their moment to shine. - Bryan Staebell - Scare Value - 7/26/23

The kids did a great job in this one too and that ending was a blast! - Amy Koto - TV Fanatic Girl - 7/21/23

The actors are appealing, as well, giving dedicated performances across the board. - Mike McGranaghan - The Aisle Seat - 7/29/23

This is a great new horror movie with mostly young actors starring in it. I especially enjoyed Channah

Zeitung's performance as Jolie. - By Yotefan96 Itunes 7/21/23

A trio of kids “ditching” school for the day (Thomas Robie, Noen Perez and Channah Zeitung) play the “Natty Knocks” game on the wrong house. You know how it goes. Knock nine times, repeat a long chant that ends with “Hide under your bed or she’ll take off your head.” The two siblings, played by Robie and Zeitung, are coping with a break-up of the family, the other kid (Perez) has a mother who’s been married four times and a sketchy new beau (Amit Sarin, not bad).

- Roger Moore - Movie Nations -7/27/23

...curious younger sister Jolie (Channah Zeitung) - Josh At The Movies 7/28/23

Harris plays small-town real estate agent Diane Henderson. Her son Wyatt (Thomas Robie) and his friend Robby (Noen Perez) hatch a scheme to steal copper wire to sell for money. Her daughter Jolie (Channah Zeitung) gets caught up in that. - by Mike McGranaghan - 8/1/23

Nevertheless, we get another homage to Halloween when babysitter Britt (Charlotte Fountain-Jardim) is faced with protecting Wyatt (Thomas Robie) and Jolie (Channah Zeitung) from a masked killer on Halloween night. - Danielle Kessler - Spectrum Culture - 8/1/23
