Weapons) at ATA World (in 2018 at World she added Xtreme Weapons and Team Demo for 2 more World Championships). She became a 2nd Degree

Black in June 2017 under Chief Master Ken Church at Church's Martial Arts. Channah was selected to be an ATA Brand Ambassador in 2018, a prestigious title representing ATA as a role model and has continued as such.

Channah promoted Anti-Bullying making several appearances at schools, County Fairs and events in California and Arizona under the name of "Child Prodigy" and "Wish Warriors". She was part of a group of celebrities performing at the 3rd Annual "Say NO Bullying Festival" Oct 14, 2018 with Milana (and will return October 5th, 2019 for the 4th) at Griffith Park in Los Angeles. In 2013 she was chosen to be the poster kid for WISHING FOR MOMMY. Channah spearheaded the Pink Belt Campaign to raise money so kids with mothers that have Breast Cancer would be able to treat their Mother. She traveled America as well as Indonesia and Australia to promote the Pink Belt Campaign and Leadership.

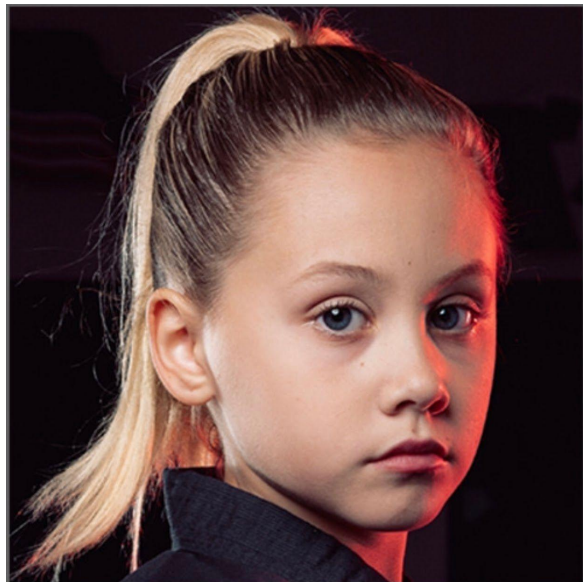

Channah was featured in ATA's Iridescent Jahng Bong promotional Jahn Bong (Bo Staff) video. Her video showing her training video (Little ninja!! Channah Zeitung) just prior to the World Championships (2018) went instant viral, and "Wesley Snipes reposted with this comment: "Train them young she is a force to be reckoned with!" YouTube has declared her video viral.
